

Dear MSU graduate students and local K-12 educators! We welcome you to apply to the 2023-24 LATTICE fellowships! Please review the three different options below.

Notes:

- Current LATTICE members are encouraged to apply.
- Non-members are also welcome to apply, but each fellowship requires participation in LATTICE sessions in Fall 2023-Spring 2024.
  - New LATTICE members can join LATTICE and be eligible to submit a fellowship application by completing this form.
- Applicants must apply individually. If you have a partner for Option 3) LATTICE SDG fellowship, please note it in the application form and instruct your partner to apply and do the same.
- Awarded fellowships will be disbursed in April 2024 after successful completion of the fellowship projects.
- Fellowship awardees will be expected to present their work to LATTICE on April 19, 2024, 6pm ET at the International Center.

Important Timeline:

- Oct 11, 2023 - Application open
- Nov 3, 2023 - Application due
- Nov 4-5, 2023 - LATTICE board reviews applications
- Nov 6, 2023 - Awardees are announced
- Nov 2023-April 2024 - Fellowship implementation period (Fellowships will be disbursed in April.)
- April 19, 2024 - Project presentations

Overview/Context:

LATTICE and the MSU African Studies Center, Asian Studies Center, Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, College of Education, Broad Art Museum, and Libraries are planning two collaborative teacher professional development series. LATTICE would like to offer several fellowships for 2023-24 for graduate students and teachers to assist with specific projects as part of the planning process. Please read the fellowship descriptions below for the three projects. The link to apply is at the bottom of this page.

Project Descriptions:

1) PROJECT OPTION ONE: Art-Based Global Education Educators Workshop

- a) The number of awardees will vary depending on the number of applicants
- b) **Note: If you are a LATTICE teacher interested in the Global Art Fellowship program, please respond to the call for applications here. (The application deadline has been extended to October 15, 2023.)*
- c) For graduate students: $250-$500.
- d) Read this broader project description before applying. Responsibilities:

- i) Support the Workshop Educator/Instructor team (from the MSU Broad Art Museum and the area studies centers) in delivering workshop activities
- ii) Support the Teacher Fellows in the design, development, and assessment of curricular materials/projects produced through the program during the program's duration (Nov - May 2024).
- iii) Collaborate to develop and curate resources for K-12 educators on arts-based global education. These resources will be hosted on the LATTICE webpage.
- iv) The graduate fellows must attend the workshop and events for the Broad Art project in Fall 2023/Spring 2024.

In Person Schedule (MSU Broad Art Museum):

- November 12, 2023, 10am-3pm ET
- January 20, 2024, 10am-3pm ET
- February 10, 2024, 10am-2pm ET

Virtual Schedule

- December 2, 2023, 9am-11am ET via Zoom
- Small group virtual meetings to be scheduled

- e) Required attendance at LATTICE Fellowship sessions, Fall 2023/Spring 2024.
Apr 19, 2024: 6:00pm ET (Awards at the International Center, fellowship presentations)
**Stipend will be provided for each session.*
- f) Optional attendance at LATTICE Fellowship sessions, Fall 2023/Spring 2024.
Nov 16, 2023: 12:30-3:30pm ET (Fellowship workshop 1, MSU Federal Union Community Room at 4825 Mt Hope Rd, East Lansing, MI 48823)
Feb 22, 2024: 12:30-3:30pm ET (Fellowship workshop 2)
**Stipend will be provided for each session.*

2) PROJECT OPTION TWO: Global Children's Literature Program

- a) The number of awardees will vary depending on the number of applicants
- b) *Note: If you are a LATTICE teacher interested in this Global Children's Literature Program, please await the upcoming call for applications specifically for teachers.
- c) For graduate students: $250-$500. Responsibilities:
  - i) Read this broader project description before applying.
  - ii) Review and synthesize past LATTICE projects around this theme. Content (attributed to authors) should be included in the website content. The LATTICE board will share these projects with fellowship awardees.
  - iii) Support the Workshop Educator/Instructor team (from MSU Libraries, College of Education, and others) in developing the workshop.
  - iv) Collaborate to develop and curate resources for K-12 educators on diverse and global children's and YA literature for use in the workshop. These resources will also be hosted on the LATTICE webpage.
  - v) The graduate fellows must attend the workshop and events for the Global Children's Literature Program in spring 2024. This will involve a commitment of approximately 21 hours during spring semester, dates/times to be announced later in fall semester.

- d) Required attendance at LATTICE Fellowship session, Fall 2023/Spring 2024.
Apr 19, 2024: 6:00pm ET (Awards at the International Center, fellowship presentations)
**Stipend will be provided for each session.*
- f) Optional attendance at LATTICE Fellowship sessions, Fall 2023/Spring 2024.
Nov 16, 2023: 12:30-3:30pm ET (Fellowship workshop 1, MSU Federal Union Community Room at 4825 Mt Hope Rd, East Lansing, MI 48823)
Feb 22, 2024: 12:30-3:30pm ET (Fellowship workshop 2)
**Stipend will be provided for each session.*

3) PROJECT OPTION THREE: LATTICE SDG Fellowship

- a) The number of awardees (both graduate students and teachers) will vary depending on the number of applicants
- b) For graduate students and teachers: $250-$500
  - i) Fellowships will be awarded to teams of 2 or more, A strong application will have both a K-12 teacher and an MSU graduate student
  - ii) K-12 teacher applicants will be awarded a fellowship certificate
  - iii) A letter announcing the K-12 teacher has been awarded a LATTICE Fellowship will be sent to each teachers' school and school district
  - iv) Upon conclusion of the project, a press release will be issued to local media and each school district
  - v) The product of the Fellowship will be displayed on the LATTICE website so it can be shared with others
- c) Fellowship Focus
  - ✓ The focus of the LATTICE Fellowship will be on integrating the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) into classroom pedagogy in the form of a lesson, unit or practice.
  - ✓ Teachers of any grade level or content discipline are encouraged to apply including projects from school counselors and other K-12 educators
  - ✓ Projects should also be consistent with the LATTICE Mission and Vision, but the focus of the project must be the Sustainable Development Goals

LATTICE Mission: LATTICE is a learning community and international network that cultivates and supports global perspectives and identities in K-12 classrooms through personal and professional development opportunities.

LATTICE Vision: LATTICE will promote a safe and dynamic learning community to share ideas, develop personal relationships and explore controversial topics that permit members to gain global understanding and appreciation of similarities and differences within nationalities, cultures, religions, ethnicities, gender, ages, and professional pursuits.

- d) SDG fellowship projects much include (follow the application form):
- i) The objectives of the project
  - ii) The guiding question, topic, issue that will drive the project
  - iii) The grade level and/or content area and/or areas
  - iv) The people involved including K-12 educators and graduate students
  - v) A plan for the implementation of the project into the K-12 classroom
- e) Information Session
- i) An informational workshop will be held on Monday, October 16 from 4:30-6:00 pm (Zoom)
  - ii) One of the goals of the October 16 workshop is to connect K-12 teachers and international graduate students. Come and find partners
- f) Required attendance at LATTICE Fellowship sessions in Fall 2023/Spring 2024.
- Nov 16, 2023: 12:30-3:30pm ET (Fellowship workshop 1, MSU Federal Union Community Room at 4825 Mt Hope Rd, East Lansing, MI 48823)
- Feb 22, 2024: 12:30-3:30pm ET (Fellowship workshop 2)
- Apr 19, 2024: 6:00pm ET (Awards at the International Center, fellowship presentations)
- *Stipend will be provided for each session.*

Application for Option One: Art-Based Global Education Educators Workshop & Option Two: Global Children's Literature Program (MSU Graduate Students only)

APPLY HERE or use the QR code below.

Application for Option Three: LATTICE SDG Fellowship
(MSU Graduate Students & K-12 Educators)

APPLY HERE or use the QR code below.

